

DR. TERESA M. CAPPIALI

Institute for Advanced Studies

SELECTED BOOK

Transformative–Emancipatory Pedagogy (TEP) to Reimagine Education: Tackling Controversies in Diverse Settings

Cappiali, T. M. (2025, in press)

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Developed and implemented Transformative–Emancipatory Pedagogy (TEP) across diverse educational contexts in Europe, North America, and North Africa
- Published over 20 peer-reviewed articles and book chapters in top journals such as Education Sciences, Ethnic and Racial Studies, and International Migration Review
- Founder and CEO of NOIWE – No Innovation without Education, promoting innovative educational strategies for inclusion and social change
- Senior Researcher at the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law (Sweden)

RESIDENCY PERIOD

June 2025 – April 2026

Dr. Teresa M. Cappiali is an internationally recognized academic, consultant, and the founder and CEO of NOIWE – No Innovation Without Education, a Sweden-based start-up advancing educational and social innovation globally. She also serves as an Affiliated Senior Researcher at the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law (RWI). Her expertise spans critical areas such as migration, inequalities, racism, gender, intersectionality, diversity, and discrimination, with a strong focus on inclusive education and social transformation.